

Summerour Studio

Summerour Studio is an old world refurbished factory overlooking Atlantic Station with a great skyline view! Summerour blends the past and present perfectly. This wonderful building was the main studio and office for Summerour & Associates architecture firm. Renowned architect Keith Summerour updated the building in 2005 after it was the long time home to Preston Rose Printing; the building has been in operation since the 1920's. The 8,000 square feet of space is wide open with great windows to capture the view. As you arrive to Summerour you enter through arches into a beautiful courtyard that rivals the villas of Tuscany. The main event space has many wonderful details that reinforce the architectural background of this great building, such as the original wood barrel vaulted ceiling and a hand carved Michael Angelo replica staircase.

Summerour Studio is located at 409 Bishop Street NW, Atlanta Georgia 30318

Convenient to Downtown, Midtown, Buckhead, Atlantic Station and the interstate, this is the perfect setting for both social and corporate events. Consider Summerour Studio for your wedding ceremony and receptions, rehearsal dinners, Bar and Bat Mitzvah's, corporate events, auctions and fundraisers, team building activities and holiday parties.

The capacity for events varies based on the style type of event, seating requirements, dancing area, outdoor spaces wanted, audio visual needs etc. The main event space is a 60' X 140' room with beautiful lighting and a built in kitchen. The outdoor courtyard has beautiful gardens with wonderful lighting.

Your rental includes a fabulous upstairs Mezzanine space!

The newly available 2,000 square foot area has gorgeous lighting, comfortable lounge seating and a terrace with sweeping city views! This is a great location for your cocktail hour, the views cannot be beat!!
